The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 8. to Saturday November 12 1737.

Dublin, October 28.

HIS Majesty's most Gracious Answer to the Address of the House of Lords of the 5th Instant, having been transmitted hither, and delivered to that House by Order of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, is as follows.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty returns his Thanks to the House of Lords for the Assurances of their Loyalty and Affection to his Person and Government. As his Majesty is persuaded, that, in all their Consultations, they will have constantly in View the Support of his Government, and the promoting the Welfare of his Subjects in Ireland, they may depend upon his Majesty's concurring with them, in whatever may contribute to those Ends.

Dublin, November 1.

His Majesty's most Gracious Answer to the Address of the House of Commons of the 6th Instant, having been transmitted hither, and by Order of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant delivered to that House by Mr. Secretary Walpole, is as follows.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty receiv'd with great Pleasure the Address of the House of Commons, and the repeated Assurances of their Zeal and Attachment to his Person and Government. His Majesty is fully persuaded, that his faithful Commons will chearfully grant the necessary Supplies for the Support of his Government; and they may be assur'd of the Continuance of his Majesty's Favour and Protection, and of the Concern which he has always shew'd for the Welfare and Happiness of his People of Ireland.

Dublin, November 1.

The Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-day falling on Sunday last, the same was observed Yesterday, when the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a vast Concourse of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes, who appeared in great Splendor to compliment his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode set to Musick was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Grace to the Ladies. At Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy throughout the City; and at the Castle, the Ball and the several Entertainments were extremely regular and magnificent.

Hampton-Court, Octob. 24. 1737.

Whereas a Letter, dated July 15. 1737. Sign'd Thomas Trusty, William Morden, John Right, and directed for Mr. William Camden, or Mr. Richard Holand, near Chorchend, in Hornsy, was received by the said William Camden, on Monday the 18th of July, desiring them to leave the Sum of Ten Pounds in a Place therein mentioned, and threatening, in Case of Refusal, That they might expect both their Houses to be set on Fire: And whereas, upon Saturday the 24th of September last, about Two of the Clock in the Morning, the House of the said William Camden, was broke open, by two or three Persons, the same, (as he supposes) who sent the said Letter, who fired upon his Servant, and robbed him, and endeavoured to set Fire to the House, by leaving a lighted Candle under some dry Wood, in an Out-house adjoining to the said Dwelling-house. His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in these heinous Crimes, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, I do hereby promise, That whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, or in committing the Robbery above-mentioned, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall have a Reward of Twenty Pounds on such Conviction, over and above any Reward he or they may be intitled to by Act of Parliament,

William Camden.

Admiralty Office, November 8, 1737.

Notice is hereby given, that a Sessions of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed

[ Price Two Pence. ]

935

committed upon the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Great Britain, will be held on Tuesday the 29th of this Instant November, at Justice Hall, in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

J. Burchett.

Excise Office, London, Nov. 9, 1737.

Whereas several Officers belonging to the Revenue of Excise, and other Persons concerned in detecting the Retailers of Spirituous Liquors, contrary to the Act of the Ninth of his present Majesty, have been violently assaulted by divers riotous Persons unknown, and grievously beat and abused: In order to discourage such Practices for the future, and to bring the Offenders to Justice, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby give Notice, that if any Person will make Discovery of any of the said Rioters, or of any who shall hereafter be guilty of the like Outrages, and give Information thereof to their Sollicitor at the Excise Office, such Person shall immediately upon the Conviction of every such Offender, receive the Reward of Fifty Pounds.
